INDIVIDUAL APPLICATION: If you intend to be solely responsible for repaying the debt, you must complete the Applicant Information section below. If you are relying on income from or have joint debts with someone within your household, then that person may be required to complete the Joint Applicant Information section to provide information about the joint income or debts.

JOINT APPLICATION: If more than one applicant will be responsible for repaying the debt, then both sections below must be completed. Additionally, both applicants MUST initial at the end of the application, indicating that they intend to apply jointly, or the application will be delayed. If the assets or debts of the joint applicants are separate, each applicant may be required to complete a separate application, but those applications will be considered jointly.
